of cotton origin and it is for the first time that certain silk items have been reserved for the handloom sector.

Implementation of Fay Commissionrecommendations in inspect of UnionTerritory employees

1989. SHRI SUKOMAL SEN: Will the Minister of FINANCE be pleased to state;

(a) whether Government have taken a decision to implement the Fourth Central Pay Commission's recommendations in repect of the employees of Union Territory of Chandigarh and other Union Territories;

(b) if so, from which date the decision has been made effective; and

(c) if no decision has so far been taken in the matter what are the reasons for the delay?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE DEPARTMENT OF EXPENDITURE IN THE MINISTRY OF FINANCE (SHRI B. K. GADHVI): (a) to (c) The Fourth Central Pay Commission in Chapter 27 of the Part-I of their Report have made the following observations in regard to Union Territory of Chandigarh:—

> "We have not dealt with Chandigarh in view of the stated policy of Central Government or transfer it to Punjab."

In regard to the employees belong, ing to Group 'B', 'C & 'D categories of the remaining Union Territory Administrations the Government have accepted 'broadly, subject to certain improvements the recommendations of the Pay Commission in the matter of pay scales and allowances. Copies of the Resolution and Notifications issued in this regard have been placed on the Table of the House separately.

While the • revision of pay scales has been permitted with effect from 1st January 1986, the payment of certain categories of allowances, for example, House Rent Allowance, Compensatory (City) Allowance etc., has been authorised from 1st October 1986.

Shares of States in collections

1990. SHRI JAGESH DESAI: Will , the Minister of FINANCE be pleased to state:

(a) whether it is a fact that from the financial year 1986-87 States 'are not being given the share by way of loans for small savings collected in the form of Provident Fund and Public Provident Fund;

(b) whether Government are aware that this will affect the resources of the State Governments to finance their plans; and if so, how the Central Government purposes to fill up this gap;

(c) whether the Maharashtra State Government has requested the Central Government to give share in the form of loan against the collection of Provident Fund and Public Provident Fund; and

(d) what will be the shortfall of resources of States and Union Territories on account of not giving share of loan on account of this?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE DEPARTMENT OF EXPENDITURE IN THE MINISTRY OF FINANCE (SHRI B. K. GADHVI): (a) to (d) Public Provident Fund collections are shared with State Governments. From 1-4-1986, non-Government Provident Funds, which pre viously invested a par of their funds in Post Offices Tims Deposits are required to invest that part in Special Deposits, which is not part of small savings. Certain States, including Maharashtra had requested that this would affect thefr share of small savings and they have been informed that instead of looking at the resource flow from Centre to States componentwise, a total view should be taken. Recent liberalisation in Public Provident Fund and the issue of the new small savings certificate Indira Vikas Patra are expected to improve small savings collections and benefit the Stater' resources.

Evaluation of rehabilitation ofbonded labour by the Planning .Commission

1992. SHRI CHITTA BASU: Will the Minister of LABOUR be pleased to state:

(a) whether an evaluation of the scheme for rehabilitation of bonded labour by the Planning Commission has recently indicated that most of the released bonded labourers are exposed to the danger of reverting back to bondage;

(b) if so, whether Government have taken any specific steps in the light Of the Planning Commission's evaluation; and

(c) if so, what are the details thereof?

THE MINISTER OF STATE OF THE MINISTRY OF LABOUR (SHRI P. A, SANGMA): (a) The Programme Evaluation Organisation of the Planning Commission had conducted an evaluation of the Centrally Sponsored Scheme for rehabilitation of bonded labour in 1981 and 1982 at the request of the Ministry of Labour and had submitted its report in March, 1984. One of the observations of the Programme Evaluation Organisation related to the danger of relapse of released toonded labour into bondage for want of sufficient subsistence allowance.

(b) and (c) Under the Bonded Labour System (Abolition) Act, 1976, the responsibility for identification, release and rehabilitation of bonded labour rests with concerned State Government. Central Government has issued guidelines to the State Governments for effective implementation of the rehabilitation schemes, and has also issued a blue print suggesting how the rehabilitation schemes should be formulated. Annual targets are fixed for State Governments for rehabilitation of bonded labour and the performance is monitored every month. There is provision for subsistence grant of Rs. 500 for each bonded labour, pending his rehabilitation. The grant under the Centrally Sponsored Scheme for rehabilitation of bonded labour has been increased from Rs. 4000 to Rs. 6,250 With effect from 1-2-1986. State Governments have been advised to integrate the Centrally Sponsored Scheme with other anti-poverty programmes to ensure effective rehabilitation.
